BECOME A BOARD MEMBER

You know we are an ALL volunteer organization. Will you volunteer to be on the board. Now is a good time to reply to this email and I will let Denise and Jeff know of your interest! You will

Our mission is to promote the art and culture of printmaking and the appreciation of prints as a unique art form.

get a deeper appreciation of the good work it takes to keep our Print Workshop humming along.

NEWSLETTER IDEAS

Can our newsletter represent the whole Hawaii printmaking community and invite others to contribute news and articles to the newsletter? Naoise suggested this idea and the Communications Committee will be discussing this idea further. Organizations that may want to be part of the newsletter are: UH Hawaii Printmakers, UH Hilo Printmakers, HoMA Printmakers, and more. Join in this discussion!

VETERANS ON-LINE ART EXHIBIT -

Asian, American Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander artists

The Office of Health Equity (OHE) at the Veterans Health Administration champions the elimination of health disparities and achieving health equity for all Veterans. OHE is calling on Asian American Native Hawaiian and Pacific Islander artists who have served, are currently serving, or are a family member of those who have served in the military to submit their work to be displayed at Office of Health Equity's Virtual Art Gallery. See one of their previous online exhibitions HERE .

Artists interested in submitting their work should contact Lauren Korshak, Director of Education for the Office of Health Equity at Lauren.Korshak@va.gov.

Selected artwork is featured in our online gallery.
